Beyond the faintest shadow of doubt the second annual "Ladies' Night" of the Norwich Rotary held at the Wauregan hotel on Tuesday evening was the most enjoyable social event of the season and was far ahead of the first "Ladies' Night" last year, when everyone believed that such a wonderful time could never be equalled. But this year the committee far exceeded all expectations and goes back to his business and passes that smile on to everyone with a smile and goes back to his outliness and passes that smile on to everyone whom he meets. Rotary teaches honor, friendliness, good citizenship and loyalty to the flag and nothing has done so much to make these facts evident in Norwich as Rotary. Rotary has been the means of cementing a worderful community spirit in Norwich that will always be a monument to it.

be a monument to it.

Prof. Henry A. Tirrell in his talk took an entirely new line of thought when he said that New London and Windham county had men years and years ago who while not privileged to belong to Rotary clubs had that same Rotary spirit in their hearts. Delving in hitory Mr. Tirrell brought out some interesting features to illustrate that spirit of Service Above Self.
